PLAINTIFFS’ AMENDED MOTION FOR A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Planned Parenthood South Atlantic (“PPSAT”) and Beverly Gray, M.D., (together, “Plaintiffs”) hereby move, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65 and Local Rule 65.1, for a preliminary injunction enjoining enforcement of two components of North Carolina Session Law 2023-14 (“S.B. 20,” see DE 1-1) (codified as amended by Session Law 2023-65 (“H.B. 190,” see DE 26-1) at N.C. Gen. Stat. art. 1I, ch. 90 (the “Act”)). Specifically, Plaintiffs seek preliminary injunctive relief against (i) N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 90-21.81B(3), -(4), 90-21.82A(c), 131E-153.1 (the “Hospitalization Requirement”); and (ii) id. § 90-21.83B(a)(7) (the “IUP Documentation Requirement”).

The Court has entered a temporary restraining order enjoining enforcement of the IUP Documentation Requirement, DE 31 (TRO) at 6–9, and has extended that restraining order until the Court rules on this Motion. DE 35 (Consent Order Extending TRO); DE 37 (Scheduling Order). The effective date of the Hospitalization Requirement is October 1, 2023. See DE 30 (Joint Stip.) at 2; DE 31 (TRO) at 9.

A preliminary injunction is justified and supported by the facts and authorities set forth in the accompanying Memorandum of Law and the Declarations of Katherine Farris, M.D., and Christy M. Boraas Alsleben, M.D., M.P.H., in support of this Amended Motion, which show that Plaintiffs meet all of the elements required for preliminary injunctive relief: (1) Plaintiffs are likely to prevail on the merits of their Due Process and Equal Protection claims with respect to the Hospitalization and IUP Requirements as set out in their First Amended Complaint (DE 42); (2) Plaintiffs and their patients will suffer irreparable injury without the injunction; (3) the injury to Plaintiffs and their patients outweighs any injury the injunction will cause the Defendants; and (4) an injunction furthers the public interest. A preliminary injunction would preserve the status quo—thereby safeguarding the health of North Carolinians and minimizing confusion for patients and providers alike—while the Court reviews the issues raised in this case.

Plaintiffs respectfully request the opportunity to present oral argument in support of this amended motion for a preliminary injunction, as contemplated by the Court's Scheduling Order (DE 37).¹ Oral argument is warranted due to the important constitutional

¹ That Order sets oral argument for September 21, 2023; Defendants and Intervenor-Defendants have jointly moved the Court to reschedule argument for either September 25 or 26, 2023. See DE 46. As noted in Defendants' motion, Plaintiffs do not object to Defendants' requested relief so long as the Court believes it will have sufficient time to concerns raised by the motion and the irreparable harm faced by the Plaintiffs and their patients seeking abortions if injunctive relief is not granted before the Hospitalization Requirement's effective date on October 1, 2023.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs move for a preliminary injunction restraining Defendants, their employees, agents, delegates, and successors in office, and all those acting in concert with them, from enforcing or facilitating the Hospitalization Requirement and the IUP Documentation Requirement. Plaintiffs further request oral argument on this motion, and request that the Court waive the requirement for bond or security.

Dated: July 24, 2023

render a decision on this Amended Motion for a Preliminary Injunction prior to October 1, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Hannah Swanson
